Rochester High School
Lisa Jaworowski, Guest Conductor

Elementary Song Fest is a one-day festival for a select chorus of approximately 200 fifth grade students from PMEA District 5. This year the Song Fest will be held at Rochester High School on Friday, March 5, 2010. Lisa Jaworowski, assistant conductor with the Children's Festival Chorus of Pittsburgh, will be our guest conductor. Registration for this event is $12.50 per student. This includes a morning and afternoon snack, a drink at lunch, and their dinner. There is an additional cost for music, which will be determined after the program is selected. The school population and the number of schools participating will determine the number of students each school may bring.

If you would like to be eligible to participate in Song Fest, please complete the form below and return it to me by October 21, 2009. After the registration deadline, I will contact you with the number of students you may bring along with further details.
